Homenetmen Glendale “Ararat” Chapter Hosts 7th Annual Tennis Tournament

GLENDALE, California – Homenetmen Glendale Ararat Chapter (Ararat) is hosting its seventh annual tennis tournament at Glorieta Park in Glendale. The tennis tournament started last weekend and will go through Sunday, May 4th. This year’s tennis tournament will feature close to 200 local tennis players. Individual and doubles will compete in 19 different categories. Tournament games start at 8:00 a.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Ararat ‘s tennis tournament is currently the largest multi-ethnic community tennis tournament in Glendale. This tournament is organized entirely by volunteers from Ararat to help bring our communities’ younger generation together from different backgrounds to create new friendships to contend in a friendly atmosphere. The closing ceremonies this year will be on Friday, May 23rd at the Ararat Center, 3347 San Fernando Blvd., at 6:00 p.m. Distinguished guests will close this year’s tournament by honoring and recognizing the athletes, participants and volunteers. All tournament results are posted at www.Ararat.org.

The Armenian General Athletic Union and Scouts, referred to as Homenetmen, is a non-profit organization founded in 1918. As a strong believer in the strong mind in a strong body concept, Homenetmen provides the Armenian American youth with moral, physical and social education. The Glendale Ararat Chapter is the largest chapter in the United States, with nearly 2,300 members. The most important part of our organization's function is provision of healthy and clean programs for teenagers and young adults through organized and supervised after school and weekend activities in a family oriented environment.
