I. HISTORY AND BACKGROUND

At Homenetmen Glendale Ararat, the “General Membership Meeting” was replaced with a “Ararat Representatives Meeting” in 2004. The need to develop Ararat Internal Governance Laws became evident after that change.

1. The first version of this Ararat Internal Governance Laws was based on Homenetmen General and Homenetmen Western USA Region Bylaws.
2. The first version of the Ararat Internal Governance Laws which only included the articles for a Division Membership Meeting and the Ararat Representatives Meeting was approved by Homenetmen Central Committee in 2006.
3. The articles which include numbers in < > refer to the same article in the Homenetmen Western Region Bylaws.
4. The original version of the Ararat Internal Governance Laws was approved by Ararat Representatives Meeting on December 16, 2018.
5. The next version of the Ararat Internal Governance Laws was approved by Ararat Representatives Meeting on December 18, 2022.
6. The 4.1 version of the Ararat Internal Governance Laws was approved by Ararat Representatives Meeting on December 17, 2023. New articles related to Intellectual Property, Document Retention, Accounting, and IT Committee were amended to the Ararat Internal Governance Laws.
7. The 4.5 version of the Ararat Internal Governance Laws was approved by Ararat Representatives Meeting on December 15, 2024. New articles related to Center Management Committee, Heritage Center Committee, Data Managers Committee, Disciplinary Committee, Non-financial Conflict of Interest, Conflict of Interest Management, and Transition of Leadership Bodies were amended to the Ararat Internal Governance Laws.
8. In version 4.7, the Honorary Member section was revised and renamed to Distinguished Member and approved by Ararat Representatives Meeting on December 14, 2025.
